HOUTMAN ABROLHOS ISLANDS

Weigh anchor to the Houtman Abrolhos Islands – located approximately 60km off the Geraldton coast, the Islands comprise three major island groups, the Wallabi, Easter and Pelsaert Groups stretching from north to south across 100 kilometres of ocean.

An archipelago of 122 coral islands with crystal blue waters and an abundance of sea life, make a visit to the Houtman Abrolhos Islands - a must for all visitors to Geraldton.

GETTING THERE

FLY

All year round flying to the Houtman Abrolhos Islands is a spectacular adventure. Take in the views of Geraldton before heading over the Indian Ocean keeping your eye out for cargo boats, fishing vessels, sharks and migrating whales (seasonal). Enjoy a flight over the Houtman Abrolhos Islands before landing on East Wallabi. On your trip home, see where the Batavia was shipwrecked. Both Nationwest Aviation and Shine Aviation offer great experiences.

CRUISE

If you want to take your time; enjoy a five day Abrolhos Islands Tour, February to May and September to October each year with the Eco Abrolhos.

CAN'T MAKE IT?

If you can't make it to the Islands be sure to immerse yourself in the story of the Abrolhos. Head to the Museum of Geraldton and learn about the Batavia or visit Batavia Park on the Foreshore featuring the Wiebbe Hayes Statue.

THE BATAVIA

In 1629 the Batavia was shipwrecked on Morning Reef in the Wallabi Group. Commander Francisco Pelsaert and select crew set off in the ship's longboat to seek help and those left endured one of the most horrific mutinies in history.

SHIPWRECKS

According to the Australian National Shipwreck Database there are 52 shipwrecks recorded off the Abrolhos Islands from the sailing vessel Batavia in 1629 to the Southern Cross trawler in 1971.

SNORKEL OR DIVE

Coral reefs, sea life, and the warm waters of the Leeuwin Current make for fantastic snorkelling and diving. The Batavia shipwreck lies in shallow waters and is a popular dive spot in Western Australia.

PEARLS

The pearls cultivated at the Houtman Abrolhos Islands are becoming increasingly popular. From the Akoya to the Black Lipped Pearl and a variety of colours in between.

MAMMALS, BIRDS, REPTILES, SEALIFE AND FLORA

The Houtman Abrolhos Islands mark the northern most habitats of the Australian sea lion. Other mammals include the tammar wallaby and bush rat. The Islands are among Australia's most important sites for breeding seabirds such as the noddies, shearwaters and terns. There are 26 terrestrial species of reptiles, many endemic to the Abrolhos including skinks, geckos, snakes and green sea turtles. There is also an abundance of sea life including fish and shark species, coral, seagrasses and more. Finally there are over 140 species of native flora on the Islands and all are classified as protected. The Abrolhos are also an important breeding site for the world renown Western Rock Lobster.

Geraldton SCENIC FLIGHTS

WILDFLOWERS

There are more than 12,000 species of wildflowers in WA, making our state home to the world's largest collection of wildflowers. In fact, 60% of Western Australian wildflowers are found nowhere else on Earth! Greater Geraldton is in the heart of wildflower country, making it the perfect launch pad to explore these breathtaking fields of colour.

WHEN CAN I SEE THE WILDFLOWERS?

Wildflower season is usually between late July to early October, depending on seasonal rains.

WHERE CAN I SEE WILDFLOWERS?

GERALDTON, CHAPMAN VALLEY AND NORTHAMPTON

Take a walk in Geraldton's Chapman River Regional Park, home to flowers, birds and reptiles. Contact the Geraldton Visitor Centre for the weekend guided walks schedule.

Just north of Geraldton is Chapman Valley and Yuna where wildflowers and everlastings abound on the roadside.

Heading north to Kalbarri? Make sure to stop at Northampton's Elephant Lookout to see the orchids.

KALBARRI NATIONAL PARK

Kalbarri National Park is home to breathtaking coastal cliffs and deep river gorges. The National Park has roughly 800 species of native flora, many of which are endemic, including the coveted Kalbarri spider orchid.

Don't forget the Coastal Cliffs, where the walkways and trails are lit up with colour.

MULLEWA AND MINGENEW

Head to Mingenew and Mullewa for an abundance of wildflowers including everlastings, orchids, and bush flowers. In Mullewa, there are several walk trails and self-drive trails to explore, where you will learn about the history of the area and see a variety of wildflowers along the way. Coleseam Conservation Park, 50km south of Mullewa, is a wildflower "must-do" and is famous for its carpets of flowers. The rare and unique Wreath Flowers, 40km east of Mullewa at Pindar, should also be on your to-do list. For the best and most current wildflower hotspots, ask the locals at the Visitor Centre.

FORESHORE ADVENTURES

Looking for the ultimate day in the sun? Geraldton and Beresford Foreshores are vibrant playgrounds for all ages, offering endless opportunities for relaxation and adventure. Stroll along meandering promenades and scenic walkways, let the kids burn off energy in sprawling play zones. Treat yourself to a seaside feast along the Foreshore, where you'll find everything from pop-up cafés and casual food shacks to established restaurants. Prefer a relaxed picnic? Make use of the shaded areas and sizzling barbecues for a classic coastal experience. Here, the coastal lifestyle is yours to enjoy.

GERALDTON FORESHORE - HEART OF THE ACTION

Right at the centre of the action, the Geraldton Foreshore boasts a family-friendly waterpark and playground that's pure joy for youngsters. Watch little ones squeal with delight as they dash through dancing fountains, splash under cascading sprays, and explore a fully fenced toddler haven.

Older kids can conquer the playground—all just steps from the turquoise waters of the Indian Ocean, Geraldton's buzzing café strip and thriving shopping precinct.

For teens and thrill-seekers, the Youth Precinct is a hotspot of energy, featuring basketball courts, electronic tag, and the adrenaline-packed Rage Cage multisport arena.

If your preference is more art than adventure be sure to check out the mix of public art installations to be found along the Foreshore including the fascinating Ilgarijiri (Things belonging to the Sky) as well as Batavia Park for a taste of our regions shipwreck history.

At the southern tip, The Esplanade featuring interpretive signage, coastal walkways binocular stations invites you to slow down and soak up the views. Climb the 360-degree viewing platform for sweeping panoramas of Champion Bay, the bustling port, and the rugged Moresby Ranges. Keep your eyes peeled for endangered Australian sea lions lounging on Seal Rocks, and don't miss the quirky Yellow Submarine—a 1960s crayfishing experiment turned iconic landmark.

BERESFORD FORESHORE - ADVENTURE MEETS RELAXATION

A short walk across the Batavia Coast Marina Beresford Foreshore and Midalias Beach offer a more tranquil escape with a splash of excitement. Kids will love the straight out of a movie set pirate-themed adventure playground while adults can swim, snorkel and fish in the sheltered bay or just grab a coffee and something to eat from the onsite café.

Take a leisurely stroll or cycle along the 1.8-kilometre coastal path, where every turn reveals jaw-dropping ocean views and sunsets that set the sky ablaze. Along the way, snap the perfect Instagram shot at the Horizon art installation—a striking 1.5-metre sphere that flips the world upside down.

When it's time to refuel, fire up a barbecue or visit a coffee van and settle into one of the shaded picnic areas, perfectly positioned near carparks for easy access. It's the ideal spot to share good food, laughter, and unforgettable coastal memories.

FAMILY FUN

With the countless things to see and do it's no wonder Geraldton is a popular destination for families.

WATERPARK AND PLAYGROUND

Right in the heart of the Geraldton Foreshore is the popular Waterpark and Playground. The kids will have a ball running through the varying fountains. There's also a fully fenced toddler area as well as a space for the bigger kids. The waterpark and playground is free and is right next to the beautiful Indian Ocean and Geraldton's vibrant café scene.

PUMP AND JUMP TRACK

Take the kids to burn off some energy on their bike or scooter at the Pump and Jump Track in Spalding Park. There is also a mountain bike skills track and an 11km Loop Trail along the Chapman River which is suitable for all ages and skill levels.

MINIATURE RAILWAY

Ride a variety of locos along a 1,200 metre outdoor ride-on-track. The Miniature Railway runs at Spalding Park on the first Sunday of each month. Passengers must wear fully enclosed shoes.

AQUARENA

As Geraldton's premier Aquatic Centre, the Aquarena is a multi-purpose swimming facility offering a huge range of activities and services.

With an indoor and outdoor component, the facility includes a 25m heated pool, an indoor leisure pool, hydrotherapy pool and 50m outdoor pool.

To keep the kids entertained there is a water slide and depending on timing – there are inflatables and a Tarzan rope. Along with a great range of group fitness classes and swimming lessons, you will find a beach volleyball court, free barbecues with lawn areas, shade sails and more.

SCHOOL HOLIDAY PROGRAM

The City of Greater Geraldton's School Holiday Program is always a hit during the school break and includes everything from SUP yoga, video games, beach volleyball, arts, craft, and fun educational workshops at the Geraldton Youth Centre and Museum of Geraldton.

THE HOUSE CAFE & PLAY CENTRE

A great place to let the kids burn off some energy while the parents recharge over a offee. The huge play centre has slides, ball pits, trampolines as well as age appropriate sections.

DINING OUT

Geraldton's café and restaurant scene is more exciting than ever with diverse selections bursting at the seams.

Let's start with the cafe scene where there is no shortage of options! Geraldton's West End on Marine Terrace is home to an array of cafes, making it one of the most popular places for visitors and locals alike.

Rest assured, there is plenty of coffee, sweet treats and places to sit and have your brekky!

Living right on the water, there is no lack of fresh seafood on local menus. Not to mention a wide range of other home-grown produce. Watch the sunset with award-winning fish and chips or pair a wine with one of Geraldton's famous rock lobsters.

If you're looking for a bite with a bit more culture, you'll have the pick of cuisines such as Australian Bush Food, Italian, Indian, Thai, Mexican, Turkish, American and Chinese.

And if it's something a bit more low-key that you're after, there is a great range of takeaway and fast food establishments.

Wanting to unwind with a drink? Have a beer with the view of the stunning Foreshore or enjoy a cocktail whilst watching the boats come in at the Marina.

From classy restaurants, bustling pubs and bars, or relaxing spots to catch up with friends – you won't be disappointed with places to eat and drink!

The lookout gives a panoramic view of the town and surrounding bush. Learn about local history from the interpretive signage. Access by vehicle with plenty of room for caravans and enjoy the 2.3km loop known as the Mullewa Bushland Trail.

STAY

Accommodation and meals are available at Inspirations as well as the Railway Hotel.
For those camping and caravanning, stay at the Mullewa Caravan Park.

GREENOUGH WALKAWAY

LEANING TREE

Buffeted by the salt laden winds the local eucalyptus trees have grown horizontally and become an icon of the region. Parking off the Brand Highway available.

WIND FARMS

Dozens of turbines reaching 80 metres high scatter the landscape of the renewable energy generator. Discover more through the interpretive signage available at the viewing area.

BOOTENAL SPRING

Interpretive signage at this freshwater spring reflects on the conflict between the early settlers and the Aboriginal people that occurred on the Greenough Flats.

ELLENDALE POOL

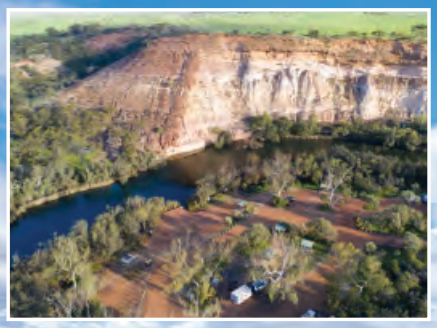

This scenic waterhole is surrounded by giant gum trees and a rocky gorge, and is watched over by Bimarra the Serpent who rests underneath the magnificent cliff face. Interpretive signs celebrate the importance the pool has played in Aboriginal and European history and is the ideal picnic or camping location.

WALKAWAY STATION MUSEUM

An impressive museum for any rail enthusiast or historian. First opened in 1888, this place played a vital role in the connection of the Midland Railway Company railway line to Midland and the Western Australian Government Railways line to Geraldton.

GREENOUGH WILDLIFE AND BIRD PARK

This park has been rescuing and rehabilitating Australian wildlife for over 30 years. Animals at the park include kangaroos, emus, crocodile, dingos and an array of reptile and birdlife. Open Sundays from 10am - 2pm. Admission costs apply. Located at 449 Company Road, Greenough.

GREENOUGH MUSEUM AND GARDENS

This eco-museum is much more than your traditional museum. Set in the 19th century former Maley family homestead, enjoy its community garden, historic trees and interactive displays. This place is full of surprises. Admission costs apply. Located at 11 Phillips Rd (off Brand Hwy).

CENTRAL GREENOUGH HISTORIC SETTLEMENT

The buildings of Central Greenough were constructed between 1863 and 1913 and provide a rare insight into the early settlement of agricultural lands. Stroll through the settlement at your leisure using the brochure as your guide.

PIONEER CEMETERIES

A walk trail at Greenough Pioneer Cemetery takes you through stories from the past. Other historic burial grounds include the Old Walkaway Cemetery and Bootenal Cemetery.

DEVLIN POOL

Devlin Pool is popular for nature enthusiasts and a peaceful spot to paddle a canoe, try your hand at fishing or relax at the gazebo.

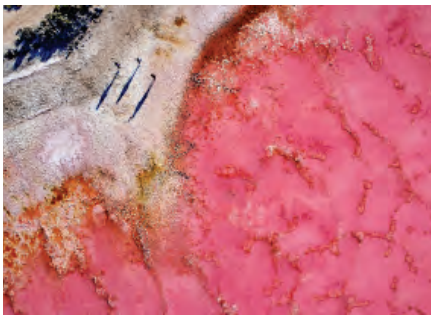

GREENOUGH RIVER MOUTH / CAPE BURNEY

The Greenough River Nature Trail is a picturesque walk through the bush land surrounding Greenough River. It provides you with the opportunity to capture the stunning views of the river, whilst protecting the vulnerable environment. The nature trail is part of the Yamatji Drive Trail

FLAT ROCKS SURFING

Flat Rocks is a renowned first-class surfing beach just south of Geraldton. Surfers will enjoy the consistently perfect surf conditions. For those who prefer to watch from the shore, the soft, pristine beach offers the perfect vantage point. Surfing Western Australia's state surf round is held each September at Flat Rocks.

NORTHAMPTON CHAPMAN VALLEY

The Shires of Chapman Valley and Northampton lie just north east of Geraldton. Steeped in cultural and natural assets – both places offer an array of things to do whether you're planning a day trip from Geraldton, or to stop in on your way up or down the coast. Here are a few things to add to your agenda:

- Enjoy a drive through Chapman Valley stopping at Mills Point Lookout for a view back over the Valley.
- Try your luck at the Chapman Valley Fishing Park.
- The Nabawa Valley Tavern is a great family-friendly spot for lunch and dinner.
- Head out to Burnt Barrel for a Texas Style BrewBBQ with tasty meats, sweet treats, local beer and ginger beer (bookings encouraged).
- If it's water sports you're into – check out Coronation Beach which is internationally renowned for windsurfing, kitesurfing and wing foiling. Annual world class events are happening here during summer!
- Take in some of Northampton's history at the Chiverton House Museum. The museum houses a display of historical artefacts, photographs and restored farm machinery, as well as a fascinating herbarium of plants.

- North of Northampton you'll find the Botanic Line and the Gwalla Railway Precinct. The Sacred Heart Convent and St Mary's in Ara Colei are two examples in Northampton of Monsignor Hawes architectural design.
- You can't leave Northampton without trying one of their award-winning vanilla slices! And that's just the start, try some more sweet treats at the local bakeries or stop in at one of the pubs!
- Pink Lake - Hutt Lagoon at Port Gregory is just over 1 hour north of Geraldton, and 45 minutes south of Kalbarri. The fantastic bubble gum Pink Lake created by the presence of carotenoid-producing algae Dunaliella Salina. Lying mere metres from the village, Hutt Lagoon covers roughly 70 square kilometres, with most of the lagoon lying a few metres below sea level. It is separated from the Indian Ocean by a beach barrier ridge and barrier dune system. Hutt Lagoon is fed by marine waters through springs.
- Check out Chapman Valley's rich history by visiting the Chapman Valley Heritage Centre in Nanson (check days and times) and historic churches including Church of our Lady of Fatima designed by Monsignor Hawes and St Luke's Anglican Church, south of Nanson.
